Why is the Trinity important?

Why do Christians pray?

I know...

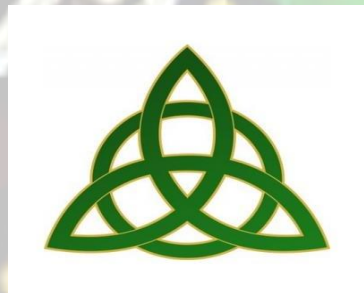

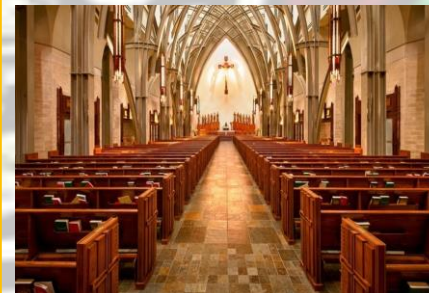

God is viewed differently by all Christians. He is believed to be the creator, love, light and father.

The Trinity is where God is believed to have three different parts of him. This includes the Holy Spirit, Father and Son. The Trinity is an important part of Christianity and is referred to during prayers.

There are lots of famous landmarks across cities in Europe. Landmarks are a feature or building of a city which are easily recognised. These are often popular tourist attractions and bring lots of people to the country it is located in.
