

Year 4 Knowledge Organiser - What is right and wrong?

How should we care for others and the world, and why does it matter?

What matters most to Christians and Humanists?

Does religion help people to be good?

What is the difference between right and wrong?

I know...

Some rules for living in religious traditions.

At least two teachings from religions about how to live a good life. Examples of rules for living from religions and suggest ways in which they might help believers with difficult decisions. Connections between stories of temptation and why people can find it difficult to be good.

Examples of ways in which some inspirational people have been guided by their religion. Discuss their own and others' ideas about how people decide right and wrong.

Some similarities and differences between the codes for living used by Christians and the followers of at least one other religion or non-religious belief system. Ideas about right and wrong, good and bad for themselves, including ideas about love, forgiveness, honesty, kindness and generosity.

Keyword

Definition

Devotion

Love, loyalty, or enthusiasm for a person or activity.

Forgiveness

The act of forgiving.

Honesty

Telling the truth even after you have done something wrong.

Kindness

Being friendly and considerate.

Generosity

Helping someone in need, being generous and kind to one another.

